

Perceiving and reflecting organized valuation

with Christian Bessy and Working Group “Organization and Valuation”

24.-25. October 2024 in Hamburg

Thursday 24th October

Voluntary group excursion to the exhibition “Survival in the 21st Century”

13:30 Check-In

13:45 Introduction

14:15 Keynote

Christian Bessy (ENS Paris-Saclay): Perception and valuation

15:15 Coffee break

15:45 Désirée Waibel (Universität Luzern): Sensing the concrete, valorizing the abstract. On organized valuation and its (dis)content

16:15 Konstantin Hondros (Universität Duisburg-Essen): (Im)perfection of the non-human: Sensing and perceiving generative AI in art and science

16:45 Coffee break

17:15 Frank Meier (Universität Bremen) and Thorsten Peetz (Universität Bamberg): The body as a detector of holiness

17:45 Ronny Ehlen (Universität Hohenheim): Paradox work in food retail – the non-standard application of quality standards in food retail

19:00 Dinner Ristorante Terzetto, Bundesstraße 31, 20146 Hamburg (at own expense)

Friday 25th October

09:00 Coffee and Snacks

09:15 Nadine Arnold (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam) and Allison Loconto (Université Gustave Eiffel): What happens when perception no longer plays a role in organized valuations?

09:45 Christopher Dorn (Universität Bielefeld): Evaluation, shame, and illness

10:15 Wrap-up and Take Away Lunch

Organisation

Nadine Arnold (n.a.arnold@vu.nl)

Christopher Dorn (christopher.dorn@uni-bielefeld.de)

Frank Meier (frank.meier@uni-bremen.de)

Sarah Lenz (sarah.lenz@uni-hamburg.de)

Thorsten Peetz (thorsten.peetz@uni-bamberg.de)

Désirée Waibel (desiree.waibel@unilu.ch)

DFG Humanities Center of Advanced Studies Futures of Sustainability,
Hamburg University, Gorch-Fock-Wall 5-7, 20354 Hamburg
U1 Stephansplatz, Dammtor train station

Please register zukuenfte.der.nachhaltigkeit@uni-hamburg.de